ORGANIZED JOINTLY BY THE JSAP, KAPA, AND TSAP

SPONSORED BY IAIP

TIME TO BLOSSOM

ROOTS AND GROWTH OF INDIVIDUAL PSYCHOLOGY IN ASIA

MARCH 20 - 22, 2026

Scan to register

or use the link –
https://time-to-blossom.peatix.com/

Focus on the best applications of Adlerian psychology in counseling, psychotherapy, medicine, education, parent training, & organizational development.

The conference is in-person only. Keynote speeches & special lectures will be recorded & made available after the conference.

Will feature a range of educational activities, including keynote lectures, special lectures, parallel sessions, workshops, a social event, & a poster session. The major lectures & a variety of parallel sessions will be translated into English and/or the languages of the three countries.

QUESTIONS? TALK TO US.

timetoblossom26@gmail.com

Keynotes:

Healing "Mind Disorder" by deepening the Holism, Ichirou Umezaki (Japanese Society of Adlerian Psychology - JSAP).

Blossoming in Asia: From Scholar Lee's Philosophy to Adler's Community Feeling - Bridging Traditional Philosophy, Individual Psychology, and Contemporary Cultural Practice, Julia Park (Korean Adlerian Psychology Association - KAPA)

Rooted in Courage, Growing in Connection: The Journey of Adlerian Psychology Across Cultures and Generations, Julia Yang & Mark Blagen (Taiwanese Society of Adlerian Psychology - TSAP)

Special lectures:

Time to Blossom - Individual Psychology Beyond Therapy, Ursula Oberst (IAIP Board)

Adlerian Psychology - the Roots of Faith, the Sustenance of the Faithful, and What is Next, Marina Bluvshtein (IAIP Board).

Plus, more than 20 highly experiential & engaging, bold & innovative sessions with presenters from Taiwan, Korea, Japan, China, Singapore, Israel, Romania, the United Kingdom, the US, & more.